Time's Journey

Editorial

Despite a lot of hazards and snags, our well wishers will be happy to know that we are going to publish the second issue of the journal -- Time's Journey. We mourn the death of our Editorial Advisory Board member, Dr. Arun Kumar Duttagupta, Retired Professor, Department of Commerce, University of Calcutta, ex-member of the UGC's Expert Panel in Commerce and recipient of the Eminent Teacher Award from the University of Calcutta, whose brainchild is this journal that he could not touch with his own hands as he passed away in 2012, shortly before the publication of the maiden issue.

It is really good for us that the Editorial Board of the journal has been graced and adorned by the senior academicians like Professor Nikhil Bhushan Dey, Ex-Dean and Head, Department of Commerce, Assam University and Professor Biswambhar Jha, Ex-Dean and Head of the Department of Commerce, Banaras Hindu University.

Many colleges, academic centres and management institutes have shown interest by subscribing to this journal. We offer our sincere thanks to those organizations. We have a dream to convert Time's Journey into a bi-annual one in the coming days. Academicians other than from the fields of Commerce and Economics are also welcome to contribute to this journal. Only the concerted efforts of all may help the journal move towards excellence.
