Time's Journey

EDITORIAL

Rapid changes are taking place in every sphere of higher education system ; in the field of Accounting, Commerce, Management, Finance, Economics, Information Technology etc. New ideas, methods and techniques are emerging for addressing new issues and problems that theoreticians and practitioners are facing in the present day context. Interaction and exchange of ideas through publications will certainly contribute towards generation of knowledge so vitally needed in modern times. To disseminate knowledge and information in emerging issues my old friend Dr. Tapash Ranjan Saha, Director IMS, Kolkata, offered me a proposal to publish a journal . On his word I tried my best to give his dream a real shape. With my appeal I requested my teacher, Dr. Sudipti Banerjea, Professor of Commerce, University of Calcutta to constitute an Editorial Board of the journal comprising distinguished scholars and academicians from different areas. My debt to Dr. Sudipti Banerjea is not worth paying in a literal sense. I also express my gratitude to my another teacher Dr. Uttam Kumar Dutta, Professor of Commerce, West Bengal State University, for helping me and extending his kind cooperation with a view to collecting many thought-provoking articles. I am grateful to Dr. Partha Sarathi Bhattacharyya, Associate Professor of Bengali, Maharaja Sris Chandra College, Kolkata, for his brainchild to give the name of the journal as - 'Time's Journey'.

As a Managing Editor with the Editor-in-Chief I take occasion to gratefully acknowledge the academic help and cooperation received from the learned contributors and reviewers and hopefully juxtapose our demand for the same in the coming years.

Bon Voyage to Time's Journey.
